

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL ALTOONA/JOHNSTOWN

AUGUST 2021

REMEMBERING LONGTIME VOLUNTEER

As we have often said volunteers are an integral part of St. Vincent de Paul. Without our volunteers and their dedication the Society would find it very hard to do that we do to help those less fortunate in our community. Nancy Hayes understood this and for 30 years she volunteered at the Assumption Chapel Pantry in Altoona.

As one of the longest serving volunteers Nancy was very thorough serving as an intake interviewer. Don Belsey, Pantry manager said, "Nancy loved people and people loved her." Thank you Nancy. May you rest in peace.

Famvin Quote of the day August 26

The poor need so much more than food and clothing. Dignity and self esteem are much harder to nurture but are nonetheless essential in breaking the circle of poverty. Today, Lord, I will make use of the opportunities of relieving whatever forms of poverty I may encounter.
