

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL ALTOONA/JOHNSTOWN

JULY 2022

TIMES THEY ARE A CHANGING

Last month we recognized Tom and Georgia Lehman who are retiring from the Johnstown Food for Families (FFF), family. Well, sort of retiring, Georgia will stay on board as a grant writer and Tom will continue at the warehouse until the “sword” can officially be passed. And that won’t take long, FFF is pleased to announce that two individuals have been hired and we are confident they will meet the challenges of the job.

Rodney DeAngelo,
Warehouse Manager,
FFF Johnstown

Welcome Rodney DeAngelo and Reghan Turchetta-Wolfe. Rodney is the warehouse manager. His experience in social work and management will be a great asset in this position. Reghan is the assistant director. Reghan’s most recent work in a healthcare facility and various other positions has prepared her for this job.

Reghan Turchetta-Wolfe,
Assistant Director,
FFF Johnstown

We look forward to working with both of them. Welcome to the family!

ANNIVERSARY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

For the first time in 3 years SVDP Altoona/Johnstown will host a mass and dinner to celebrate the founding of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. On Sunday, October 2, 2022 consider joining the Society in observance of the 189th anniversary of the Society and to recognize Vincentians and volunteers that have given of their time and talents to help those less fortunate in our community. The celebration is open to everyone. More information will be available on line.

Famvin Quote of the day, July 26

“How liable we are to err in our judgments respecting others unless we thoroughly know the motives of their actions.” (CW 1:22)

– St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

– How easy it is to rashly judge the actions of others! Lord, if I err regarding others, let it be on the side of charity.

ASSUMPTION CHAPEL NEWS

Earlier this year a local woman was named WTAJ's Women of the Year and won $1,000 to be donated to the charity of her choice. Melanie Henry, this year's winner, (pictured above wearing a green dress) gifted the $1,000 to the Assumption Chapel food pantry. Accepting for the pantry is Don Belsey, pantry manager. Click on the link above to read more about Melanie's contributions to central Pennsylvania. Thank you so much Melanie for thinking of the pantry.

Since COVID decimated our figures over a year ago, Don Belsey, pantry manager said, "I am most pleased to announce the Pantry has broken the one thousand level." The Pantry provided food to 1087 clients, with 320 being kids and 189 Seniors.

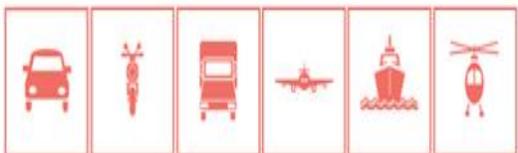

Don would also like to welcome Mary Eiman to the pantry. She is a dedicated VA client facilitator who assists the military personnel at the pantry.
